

ST Open Space partitioning for office

Ex Tax: 0.00€

Office partition walls - Open space. Furniture for an open space office: quality and beauty in a single environment. If you need to furnish your open space and want the utmost practicality, we have the solution for you. A prestigious furniture suitable for large, noisy and chaotic offices, combined with comfort, to have a single space at the best relationship quality/price. Free passage of ideas. Most architects in different Countries all over the World, love to design freestanding walls to separate spaces without closing them completely. For this type of requirement, requests have led us to create a flexible product, able to resist to the shocks of daily living in an operative work place and, at the same time, able to ensure adequate privacy in times of need. Our experience and testing all over the world for more than twenty years, have led us to a reliable and versatile product, adapt for any type of project requirement.