

MicroClimate Control Mini (active)

Ex Tax: 0.00€

This positive pressure microclimate control system will typically maintain the relative humidity level in a sealed museum enclosure to within two percent (or less) of your target relative humidity. Depending upon the ambient temperature conditions and enclosure construction, relative humidity levels of less than thirty-five to over eighty percent