EB Series Soft seating Luna

Luna with Sound. Your own private space where you will be undisturbed even in public places. Listen to a talking book in the library or book shop, or the latest CD in the music store. No need for headphones – the sound is just there! Turn off the sound and use your private space for contemplation or a resting moment at the busy airport. The sound seat speaks for itself, "Please do not disturb!". (Sound Design: Stefan Sorey and Glenn Olofsson).
